CONTINENTS & OCEANS,
MOVIES, 3 GAMES, 30 SLIDES!

Scientists believe that the first humans lived in Africa. Africa is the second largest continent. The equator passes directly through the middle of Africa. It is the home of the longest river in the world, the Nile. It is also home to the largest desert in the world, the Sahara.

America

South America is made up of countries, as seen in the gray sections of this map.

As you can see in this map, South America is surrounded by 3 of the world's oceans: The Pacific Ocean to the West, the Southern Ocean to the South, and the Atlantic Ocean to the East.
